

SAVE HEW

Dear Resident

HEW is Hamilton Electricity Works and your new campaign name.

A planning application has just been submitted to the council to DEMOLISH two of the Victorian buildings as per the original plans. This, however, is a special request due to the fact that the buildings are now in a Conservation Area. We have to OBJECT to this application, as these buildings must be protected, as part of the Industrial Heritage of Twickenham. All the letters that you wrote originally opposing the development at 37 Hamilton Road, made an enormous impact and it is because of this HUGE effort from local residents that we have got this far.

I urge you all to support and save HEW. Please write another letter of objection to:

Connor Corrigan
Development Control
London Borough of Richmond upon Thames
Civic Centre,
44 York Street,
Twickenham

If you have access to a computer, please see your own campaign website www.hew.org.uk, which is full of information and links to various sites.

The website also has a links to the BBC Local Action website and our campaign is on there for you to support. Please do so as it will get National coverage and interest.

Many thanks
